

Elsie Holmes McKibbin Award

Honors an occupational therapist who has made considerable contributions to the body of knowledge of the profession. The award receives agency sponsorship to assist in the research expenses of the award recipient. The Elsie Holmes McKibbin Lecture (EHML) will be presented by the previous year's recipient at the ALOTA Fall Conference.

Nominees for the EHML must have a minimum of ten (10) years' experience. The recipient must have shared their knowledge through written and oral presentations. Nominees must be members of ALOTA.

Name _____
Address _____
Employer _____
Person Nominating _____

Narrative supporting award nomination:

Please submit to connor@health.southalabama.edu no later than

August
26, 2016

May attach CV if available

Ann Cosby Service Award

Recognizes an advocate, member or non-member, who has made contributions to the advancement of occupational therapy and/or health care over a period of time.

Name _____
Address _____
Employer _____
Person Nominating _____

Narrative supporting award nomination:

Please submit to toconnor@southalabama.edu
no later than August 26, 2016

May attach CV if available

OTR Award of Excellence

Demonstrates excellence in professional skills through a range of experience and depth of knowledge in OT theory, practice and association involvement. The award recipient must have demonstrated excellence in professional skills through a range of experience and depth of knowledge in OT theory, practice and association involvement. All nominees must be members of the ALOTA and have a minimum of five years' experience.

Name _____
Address _____
Employer _____
Person Nominating _____

Narrative supporting award nomination:

Please submit to toconnor@southalabama.edu no later than August 26, 2016

May attach CV if available

OTA Award of Excellence

Recognizes COTAs who have contributed to the education and professional development of the members of the Alabama Occupational Therapy Association, particularly fellow COTAs. The award recipient must have demonstrated excellence in professional skills through a range of experience and depth of knowledge in OT theory, practice and association involvement. All nominees must be members of ALOTA and have a minimum of five years' experience.

Name _____
Address _____
Employer _____
Person Nominating _____

Narrative supporting award nomination:

May attach CV if available